

Jack Woolley, Saloonman, Called As Witness in Police Graft Trial

THREE WOMEN JURORS PICKED IN BRIBE CASE

Six Seats in Jury Box Are Left Filled When Both Sides
in Nedderman Trial Exercise
Peremptory Challenges

Jack Woolley, Saloon Proprietor,
and Sometimes Alleged Gambler, is Called by Defense to Refute Prosecution

Half of the twelve jurors who will try former Chief John H. Nedderman on the charge of receiving a bribe had been secured when noon recess was taken in Judge James G. Quinn's court today. Efforts to secure the remaining six occupied the afternoon session, and are expected not to be concluded before tomorrow morning.

Outside of court other developments in the graft prosecution were not lacking, the most interesting of which was the subpoena served upon Jack Woolley, proprietor of a saloon on Twelfth street, and at times alleged to be engaged in gambling. It developed in the hearing in court that Policeman Steve Connolly was also among the witnesses for the defense.

SIX PERMANENT JURORS
REMAIN IN JURY BOX.

After the prosecution and defense had finished exercising their peremptory challenges, the following six remained as permanent jurors in the case:

E. W. Rivers, retired conductor, 1025 Hilbert street,
S. E. Kellogg, 810 Taylor street,
Alameda.

Mrs. Fannie Smith, 550 Sixty-third street
Mrs. Clara Barker, 5337 Lawton avenue
A. P. Berthelson, retired ship tender, 465 Santa Clara avenue, Alameda.

Mrs. Imogene Delaney, 3245 Galdino street, Fruitvale.

The state ex-cused Wallace M. Downey, a hotel keeper at 622 Thirteenth street, and William J. Abernathy, retired grocer. The four peremptories of the defense were exercised upon Mrs. Ella J. Sheldon, 2015 East Twenty-third street; George W. Ross, 325 Chestnut street; Alameda; A. A. Crosby, 1111 Chestnut street; 718 Walla Vista avenue, and Mrs. Mary L. Lewis.

WOOLLEY CALLED TO REFUTE PROSECUTION.

The subpoena for Woolley was not entirely unexpected. He has been variously reported to the effect that Woolley would be brought into the situation and asked to refute some of the testimony that is to be offered by the prosecution. When the defense expects Woolley to testify to a matter which counsel for Nedderman left untold.

The subpoenaing of Policeman Connolly by the defense was known by Police Chief W. B. Connelley, chief counsel, at the only moment in this morning's proceedings when there was an escape from the formality of jury examination. It was District Attorney General E. J. Connelley who precipitated the admission, either intentionally or otherwise. He was examining Mrs. Delaney and into the usual run of names of persons who might be known by the prospective juror he introduced this.

"Are you acquainted with Steve Connolly, the policeman who has been hanging around here for several days?"

"HANGING AROUND?"

"PROTESTED BY CROSBY."

Crosby was on his feet at once to object.

"I object to the prosecution's handling the names of witnesses for the defense in such a slurring fashion," he exclaimed to the court.

"I did not know he had been subpoenaed," Decoto replied. "We have no manner of knowing who your witnesses are."

The court suggested that if Connolly had been subpoenaed, he could not technically be said to be "hanging around." The district attorney withdrew "hanging around," but he almost resented it once more.

When he asked Mrs. Delaney if she knew Philip M. Carey, attorney for Nedderman's co-defendant, Dave Cockrell.

"You may have seen him standing around here today," he explained.

"This time, however, he did not draw the defense attorney's fire. Once again Deputy District Attorney Theodore P. Wittchen insisted on criticism of defense tactics into his questioning, but also escaped."

Gets Entire Estate

Mrs. Margaret M. Wells, widow of the late Judge William H. Wells, was today granted letter of administration in the estate by Judge Lin S. Church. The letters were granted according to the provision of the will, which nominated her for administration without bond and left the entire estate to her, expressing confidence that she would otherwise make for the children. The estate is valued at approximately $24,000.

SECRETARY BAKER IS CHARGED WITH BREACH OF TRUST

WASHINGTON, June 24.—A charge of gross breach of trust, which, if committed in normal times would come very close to leading to impeachment proceedings, was made against Secretary Baker and the war department today by Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin.

Lenroot, during the debate on the army bill, declared the department committed a moral wrong when it obligated the government to spend several millions of dollars to buy land at Camp Benning, near Columbus, Ga., for a school of arms after the armistice was signed.

"Startling disclosures of waste and extravagance beyond comprehension," in the foreign expenditures of the war department are promised by Chairman Royal Johnson of the special House sub-committee to investigate how the United States money was spent in England, France, Italy and Russia.

Johnson, who served in the A. E. F. as a private and then a lieutenant, says he has information obtained first hand. He is planning to probe the reported burning of a huge amount of new war supplies near Souilly, France.

Plans of the war department seemed to be to "bury the investigation with a mass of statistics," one member stated after seeing the data submitted by Secretary Baker yesterday.

SETTLEMENT REACHED WITH ELECTRICIANS

Compromise Offer Made by Company Satisfactory to Workers; New Scale Calls
for $6 Instead of $6.40

Employees Will Not Return to Work Until Agreement Also Has Been Reached With
the Telephone Workers

Settlement was reached today in the strike of electrical workers employed by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

While accepting the compromise offer made by the company, the electrical workers declared that they would not return to work until the full demands of the telephone operators, who walked out in unison with them, are met.

The agreement between the electricians and the company was reached at a conference today in San Francisco. The demand of the workers for a wage of $6.40 a day was met by the company with an offer of $6. After a prolonged parley, the workers' committee announced that the $6 rate would be satisfactory.

L. C. Grasser, representing the electrical workers, made the announcement for the strikers.

The cause of the telephone operators will be taken up late today in a second conference between the unions and the employers.

Leaders of the strikers said today that they are not entirely satisfied by the plan made for the compromise of the demands of the strikers, and expect that additional concessions will be demanded.

Even if an agreement is reached today by the representatives of the strikers and of the company, it is believed that it will be Saturday at least before the conditions in the telephone exchanges will be normal.

After the union representatives require back to the strikers it will require a referendum vote before the agreement can become effective, and possibly this vote will be taken in every city on the coast.

D. P. FULLERTON ISSUES
STATEMENT FOR COMPANY

The following statement was made by D. P. Fullerton, general superintendent of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company:

"The company has given to the representatives of its employees a schedule of wages which provides for increases to $12.50 a month, and plant for the increases offered at this time to the operating employees, including other increases given in the last nine months, represent an increase of 3 per cent.

Wages paid in 1918, 50 per cent over the wages paid in 1917 prior to the time the United States entered the war.

"Under the new schedules proposed for the principal classes of such as San Francisco, Oakland, Los Angeles, etc., which cover more than 70 per cent of the company's total operating employees, a new employee, during the short course of the strike, will receive pay at the rate of $52 a month. Increases in pay are given regularly and at the end of seven months an operator will earn from $53 to $72 a month. Supervisors will earn from $73 to $94 a month. The increases are given, until under the maximum rates provided on the new schedule an operator will earn from $55.50 to $94.50 a month. Supervisors will earn from $56 to $95 a month, depending on the hours of work.

"The increases offered at this time to plant employees with increases during the past twenty months, represent an increase of 70 per cent over the wages paid at the beginning of the war. The increases just offered will put the men's wage on the basis of $6 per day."

EXTRA GUARDS USED
BECAUSE OF CLASH

Extra guards were placed about the telephone company's buildings at Seventeenth and Franklin streets today following outbreaks last night in which striking sympathizers engaged in a lively clash with the police, destroyed bedding taken from an express wagon sent to carry it to strikebreakers, and caused a call for a "riot squad" to the central police station.

The trouble was started through the refusal of Ray Greeng, an express wagon driver, to deliver a

Aviator on Daily Flight Over Home of Fiancee Killed

RYE, N. Y., June 24.—Lieutenant Shelley Watson of Rogers, Texas, stationed at Mineola field, and his civilian mechanic, M. Ireland, were burned to death here today when their airplane crashed to the ground and burst into flames. Watson was flying low over a cottage on the beach here in which his fiancée lived. His fiancée witnessed the accident. Watson had recently returned from 18 months' overseas duty and was considered an expert flyer.

The bodies were charred beyond recognition, but army officers from Mineola field identified the plane and occupants.

As the machine struck the ground, the gasoline tank exploded and it was impossible for the few spectators to do anything to extricate the men.

An adjacent cottage caught fire from the flying gasoline, but the flame was extinguished by the fire department.

Watson had been in the habit, his brother flyers said, of flying over his fiancée's cottage every morning.

SEAPLANE USED
BY DE VALERA TO ESCAPE BRITISH

NEW YORK, June 24.—The secret of Edward (Eamonn) de Valera's spectacular escape from England and making his way into the United States without the aid of passport or credentials was revealed here today.

The president of the Irish republic left England in a hydroplane, flew out to sea and there met by appointment a steamer. He transferred to this ship and came to America.

Further details of his daring exploit were refused by his advisers today because of fear that their revelation might injure friends in England and America.

MADE HIS ESCAPE WHILE BRITISH OFFICERS WATCHED

According to de Valera's advisers, he made his escape under the eyes of a number of British army and naval officers.

"They apparently did not recognize him," said one. "For as the hydroplane left the water they cheered and waved, the aviator flew straight out to sea, made a successful landing and President de Valera was taken aboard in a small boat. The port at which he landed must remain a secret."

In his "confidential" suite at the Waldorf-Astoria today, de Valera told of the aims and hopes of the Irish republic.

"First, I want to deny that he so widely circulated in this country that the Irish republic carried with it accepted gold from the German government during the war," he said. "It is British propaganda, calculated to discredit our cause in the allied countries."

WANTS FAVOR FIRST OF
PEOPLE OF AMERICA

President De Valera stated that his prime purpose in coming to America was to win from the American people recognition of the Irish republic.

"After the people have recognized our government," he said, "then it will be time enough to ask your Congress and government for recognition. If a hearing has been refused our representatives in Paris, I would like to go before the American Congress and thank them for the interest taken in our cause and present our claims for recognition."

Plans have been completed to finance the republic, he declared. The De Valera government already is authorized to issue bonds to be sold in America, Canada, Australia and Ireland.

WILL TOUR COUNTRY
TO PRESENT HIS CASE

President De Valera stated that he would tour the United States and place his cause before the people of every city. His appearance at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel yesterday evening was dramatic.

De Valera, a tall, smooth-faced, clear-eyed, young Irishman, was born in New York in 1867, but said he "renounced" his American citizenship when he became an Irish soldier. He admitted he came here from Boston several days ago. It was stated that during his stay in

Some of the metal plants were open today, being manned by small staffs.

SHARP FIGHT BRINGS LEASE OF TIDELANDS

Berkeley Transfers Waterfront for 50 Years at $100
Month; City Attorney Tenders Resignation Over It

Vote on Transaction Is Three
to Two and Controversy Is Heated; One Change Made
From Original Document

BERKELEY, June 24.—Over the advice of City Attorney Earl J. Sinclair, the Berkeley city council this morning granted a fifty-year lease of its tidewater lands to Rufus Jennings, Oakland capitalist, at a rental of $100 per month. The vote was 3 to 2. Mayor Samuel C. Irving and Councilmen Charles D. Heywood and E. T. Harms voting for the lease and Councilmen Charles M. Boynton and Carl Bartlett against it.

With the failure of the city officials to heed his advice that the city was not fully protected, City Attorney Sinclair tendered his resignation to the official body to take effect immediately. A motion to accept Sinclair's resignation made by Councilman Boynton received no second while a second motion offered by Councilman Bartlett to lay the matter over was ignored also.

ONLY ONE IMPORTANT
CHANGE IS MADE.

The lease as granted today to Jennings is practically the original document as presented to the city council, but one important change. Following consultation with Stanley Smith, Jennings' attorney, an additional clause was added making it mandatory for the lessee to expend at least $1,000,000 on the leased land. Heretofore no provision was made except for the improvement of lands already controlled by the leasing parties.

Jennings, together with Stanley Smith and Mayor John D. Galloway, member of the engineering firm of Markwart & Galloway, was present at this morning's meeting to present their plans. The bid of Jennings as made by Smith was the only one received by Councilman Boynton, who officiated in the role of auctioneer.

CLASH OCCURS AS MOTION IS MADE.

A clash between members of the city council and city attorney followed a formal motion of Councilman Jennings that the lease be awarded Jennings. Councilman Bartlett moved that the advice of the city attorney be solicited on the question of the lease and its protective qualities for the city.

"I've had all of the advice of the city attorney that I desire," declared Councilman Heywood.

"The lease," he said, "was the result of a long and hard fight."

Bartlett stood firm on his ground. "I have not seen a copy of the lease as changed," he declared. "The original alterations can be made in the document without affecting its legality," he declared.

On request of Mayor Irving, Sinclair took the floor. "All of the changes as made provide added protection for the city and the only question which may arise should be that the lessee should be required to expend the city should be."

WATERFRONT TURNED OVER FOR 50 YEARS.

A vote for action on the lease resulted in a three to two ballot and the waterfront was turned over to Jennings for fifty years.

"In view of what has been done I cannot conscientiously serve in my office as city attorney any longer and hereby tender my resignation as city attorney," was the next move from Sinclair in the morning's proceedings.

Following the granting of the lease the proposed waterfront development was explained by Mayor Galloway, former army engineer, as representing modern architecture and the plan of the city.

Mayor Galloway declared that the plan of the waterfront would be followed and that pieces projecting 3000 feet into the bay would be built with 5000 feet of concrete each unit to provide additional docking space.

A verbal clash between Mayor Irving and Sinclair marked the night's news recording called by the Berkeley Defense Corps for a discussion of the proposed lease.

Sinclair in taking the platform as an opponent of the lease, declared that he had not been given sufficient time to draft the document and the matter was given into the hands of attorneys for Rufus Jennings.

IRVING CHALLENGED
SINCLAIR'S STATEMENT.

Statements of Sinclair were challenged by Mayor Irving, who declared that the city attorney had been instructed a month before the lease was to have been presented, to prepare the document. He pointed out his ignorance of such documents and evaded the issue. Mayor Irving intimated that "outside control"

(By United Press)
WASHINGTON, June 24.—The war cost 7,582,300 soldiers' lives, between $185,000,000,000 and $195,000,000,000 in money; the loss of 23,005,383 tons of merchant shipping and 1,882,125 tons of war vessels and property loss of $22,000,000,000 due to war devastation.

These figures today were presented to league of nations opponents by Senator McCumber, North Dakota, a league advocate, as the most telling reasons why the league should be ratified and future wars prevented. The figures were gathered for McCumber by the war department.

PARIS, June 24.—Through a decision reached by the big three today the United States, Great Britain and France will take over German bonds which will be issued to cover Belgium's war indebtedness. This arrangement is subject to approval of the three countries' parliaments. This will mean that Belgium's war debt will be completely wiped out.

PARIS, June 24.—The German delegation which will sign the peace treaty will arrive at Versailles Friday morning. The French foreign office has been informed that it is thought probable in French circles the signing of the treaty will take place at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

By ALFRED G. ANDERSEN,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WEIMAR, June 24.—The rumor has leaked out in cabinet circles that Philip Scheidemann, who resigned as head of the German government last Friday because he opposed acceptance of a peace treaty, is preparing to flee to Switzerland, fearing that he is among those German leaders whom the allies plan to bring to trial for responsibility for the war.

PARIS, June 24.—Premier Clemenceau has expressed his intention to resign from office as soon as the treaty is promulgated, feeling that he has accomplished the task for which he assumed the premiership, says Marcel Huin in the Echo de Paris. One is expected that parliament would ratify the treaty late in July.

No word has been received from Weimar relative to the new German plenipotentiaries at Versailles. The date of the ceremony of signing the treaty has not as yet been fixed, but the belief is gaining ground that it will occur Thursday or possibly Friday.

An unconfirmed rumor is in circulation in American official circles here that the new German government, headed by Gustav Adolf Bauer, has fallen.

The supreme blockade council met today to decide on a date when the blockade of Germany should be lifted. The council will probably decide to lift the blockade with the signing of the treaty.

MUELLER TO HEAD
GERMAN DELEGATION.

Hermann Mueller, the new German foreign secretary, will head the German delegation to sign the peace treaty, LaLiberte says. The Germans probably will arrive at Versailles Wednesday morning.

Celebrations over the German decision to sign the treaty of peace without reservations were nowhere more enthusiastic than at Lille and other cities and towns in territory wrested from the Germans.

Newspapers printed special editions, clearing every public street, and the houses were decked with allied flags. At Toulon, Brest and other naval ports, warships announced the news to the people by firing salutes of 21 guns. At all the cities government buildings were illuminated.

HUN SENTIMENT
STILL DEFIANT.

LONDON, June 24.—News of the German government's agreement to sign the peace terms resulted in patriotic demonstrations throughout Germany, the Exchange Telegraph's Copenhagen correspondent reports.

In Berlin, Munich and other large cities processions formed and marched along the principal streets, the participants singing war songs and cheering the generals of the old empire.

The officers' association has asked the Dutch government not to deliver the former German emperor to the allies.

PARIS, June 24.—Formal signing of the peace treaty will take place Friday or Saturday in Versailles, it was indicated in official circles today.

Secretary Dittus of the peace conference suggested to Herr Von Leisner that the ceremony take place Thursday, but it was later said that the ceremony might be deferred until Friday.

Herr Dunker, a member of the German peace delegation in Versailles, said that while Secretary Von Hanfstaengl had been empowered to sign, he believed that Matthias Erzberger, chairman of the German armistice commission and vice-chancellor in the new Bauer cabinet, would come to Versailles for that purpose. In either case it appeared that the ceremony would be held on Friday.

GOODBY, WOMEN'S TROUBLES

The tortures and discomforts of water, cold, itching, back, swollen feet and limbs, weakness, dizziness, nausea, as a rule have their origin in liver trouble, not female complaints. These general symptoms of kidney and bladder disease are well known—and so is the remedy.

Next time you feel a twinge of pain in the back or are troubled with headache, indigestion, insomnia, irritation in the bladder or pain in the loins and over abdomen, you will find quick and sure relief in GOLD MEDAL Hairline Capsules. This old and tried remedy for kidney trouble and allied derangements has stood the test for hundreds of years. It does the work. It cleans and restores the system and health will come as you continue their use. When completely restored to your usual vigor, continue taking a capsule or two each day.

GOLD MEDAL Hairline Capsules are imported from the laboratories at Haarlem, Holland. Do not accept a substitute. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

Use Coconut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multisided coconut oil shampoo (which is dry and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly irritate the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisided coconut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Advertisement.

GROGERS TOLD OF NEED FOR ORGANIZATION

SALT LAKE, June 24.—The importance of organization, as exemplified during the war emergency, was a plea to secure a possible membership of 500,000 of which only 10 per cent now are enrolled were brought out in an address today by Frank E. Connelly, of Salt Lake, president of the National Association of Retail Grocers of the United States, which is holding its annual convention here. He said in part:

"When Herbert Hoover was appointed United States food administrator, he realized it was necessary to inaugurate an effective system of food control in the shortest possible time. He summoned to Washington the members of the executive board of our national association, representing every section of the country, and formed the committee on retail distribution."

"As regular intervals during the war we assembled at Washington to solve the problems presented and through our organization rendered valuable assistance to the government. Ours was a standing army already mobilized, ready to act—a powerful ally to the federal food administrator."

"To make more effective this system of food control in every small community, the state and county food administrators found it necessary to organize the members of the members of our local associations at their meetings to explain the regulations issued by the United States food administration that were put into effect to bring about proper food conservation."

"In communities where the retailers were unorganized, these food administrators found their duties more difficult to perform in many instances called meetings and effected a temporary organization. Our retailers themselves, on numerous occasions, endeavored to organize for the purpose of bringing about a better understanding of the food regulations, so that no violations, from lack of information, would result."

"This state of affairs once more demonstrated the value of organization. Then, as never before, did our people realize there was a great need for organization; the consuming public acknowledged such organization was advantageous to all, the government itself recognized the real value of an organization such as ours."

"The justification of our twenty-six years of existence at that time, national organization was never more clearly demonstrated than during the war years. Let us now go forward with a determination to inaugurate the size and efficiency of our organization."

"In order to broaden the scope of our association we should add to our ranks, in some manner, the word 'merchants' to recognize besides retail grocers, the various retail merchants engaged in other lines of business. I advocated this change at our convention in New Orleans, in 1916. The word 'merchants' was added since 70 per cent of our members are retail grocers, or engaged in the general merchandise business, there was no necessity for organizing other lines of trade. The fact remains, however, that nearly every state association that constitutes our national organization, embodies the word 'merchants' in its title. In fact, the majority of our state associations are merely retail merchants' associations and do not mention the word 'grocer' in their titles. They apply to such states as Iowa, Illinois, Missouri, Pennsylvania, Colorado, Utah and many other of our affiliating states."

Koreans Will Boycott Japanese-Made Goods

HONOLULU, H. I., June 24.—More than 1500 Koreans from all islands in the Hawaiian group yesterday pledged themselves to boycott in Hawaii the products of Japanese goods, in accordance with similar measures being taken in Mexico, Russia, Manchuria and elsewhere. Two Koreans met yesterday in special conference called by the Korean National Association of Hawaii. No disorder attended the conference.

Tornado Takes Toll of 44; 167 Injured

FERGUS FALLS, Minn., June 24.—Fergus Falls today cleared away the debris of Sunday night's tornado. Forty-four bodies have been recovered from the ruins and fifteen are reported missing. Three hundred thirty-three persons were injured, and three hundred and thirty-three were injured. The town is under martial law. Visitors are not allowed. Residents are barred from searching the ruins. State guardsmen took the place of volunteers in running up.

Big Bombing Plane Kills Two Children

BOSTON, June 24.—A bombing airplane piloted by Lieutenant Colonel H. B. Clappett struck and killed two children and injured another in landing at Franklin Field. Captain William H. Chandler, observer of the machine, was slightly hurt. The plane, one of seven which arrived from Albany, N. Y., on the last leg of a flight from Dallas, Texas, was wrecked.

Pioneer of 91 Takes Ride in an Airplane

McMINNVILLE, Ore., June 24.—W. C. Hambley, aged 91, took a ride in a commercial airplane here today. He came to Yamhill county from team in 1847, said the pioneer as he was being strapped into his seat, "and I have been waiting ever since for this chance." His enthusiasm was undimmed when he was brought back to earth after 15 minutes aloft.

MOUSE STEALS $600 IN BILLS TO MAKE NEST

TRIBUNE BUREAU, CHICAGO, June 24.—Somewhere in the vicinity of the Olympia cafe on South First street is a mouse's nest made of a $600 currency roll and the proprietor, J. Ferranti, is searching for that nest.

Manager Ferranti was in a hurry when he closed up his place of business last night and failed to stop and place his roll in the safe. Instead, he placed the bills behind the ice box.

This morning when he looked for the roll he found the torn bits of several bills on the floor back of the ice box and came to the conclusion that a mouse had taken the roll for a nest.

Shonts Is Sufferer From Pneumonia

NEW YORK, June 24.—Theodore P. Shonts, president of the International Trust Company, is dangerously ill at his home here of bronchial pneumonia, it was learned. An operation was found necessary yesterday because of the development of emphysema.

NEURALGIA AND HEADACHES HAVE BEEN CORRECTED

Another Indiana Woman Is Glad to Recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"My illness started from a cold," relates Mrs. A. J. Henshaw of No. 310 South Fourth street, Terre Haute, Indiana. "It left me with bronchial trouble and I paid little attention to it at first, but my illness kept getting worse. Gradually my nervous system developed and there was a sharp, intense pain that seemed to make me short of breath. When the pain was at its worst I became very nervous and couldn't draw a long breath without pain."

"There were also frequent headaches and I worried a great deal. My sleep did not seem to refresh me and I was always tired. Nothing helped me and one day, after reading about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I decided to give the remedy a trial. In a few days I was convinced that the pills were helping me and continued the treatment until the pain entirely disappeared. I no longer have headaches and feel well able to do my work. I am no longer nervous and feel better than I have in months. I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., at 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, postpaid on receipt of price. A booklet on nervous disorders will be mailed free on request.—Advertisement.

Reliable Method of Hair Care

Hair is by far the most conspicuous thing about us and is probably the most easily damaged by bad or careless treatment. If we are very careful in hair washing, we will have it really no more trouble. A specially fine shampoo for this weather, one that brings out all the natural beauty of the hair that dissolves and entirely removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt, can easily be used at trifling expense by simply dissolving a teaspoonful of canthox (which you can get at any drugstore), in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so that you can easily apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. This chemically dissolves all impurities and creates a soothing, cooling lather. This lather leaves the scalp perfectly clean, soft and pliant, while the hair takes on the glossy richness of natural color, also a fluffiness which makes it seem much heavier than it is. After canthox shampoo, arranging the hair is a pleasure.—Advertisement.

"Are you sure Madge is all right, Katherine?" she demanded, without waiting for an answer, turned me.

"You plucky thing!" she said warmly.

I flushed with happiness at her approval. Katherine glanced at me reproachfully as she answered:

"I have heard her doing a perfectly unheroic stunt just now, but I'm sure she's all right."

Lillian glanced at me sharply, the same time.

"Katherine."

"Let's hear it," she said.

"I'll tell you Katherine's reply," I begged. "She exaggerating an idiom."

"Did I ask you to speak?" Lillian turned with mock severity. "Now."

with our regular, every-day eyes and cares and hearts. If a picture doesn't give you HUMANITY—pass it up.

This world has about as much use for an artist, who calls a stomach ache in pictures "inspirational distress" as it would have for a shoe clerk who sold miffin pans for shoes.

THE FIRST ATTACK. Lillian didn't speak again for two minutes. She was too busy trying to clasp her hands in her hands—her accustomed position when thinking deeply—she stared straight before her, and Katherine and I sat quietly awaiting her word.

Her affection and admiration with which I watched her was tinged with something akin to fear. Katherine told me that when the men posed as officials sent to take out our electric light meter had disregarded the sign posted on the door, Lillian, standing on the outside of it, had not hesitated to knock through the door with her own pistol. She had purposely frightened them as not to let her in, and that she had been wiser than the two of the men testified.

new religions, or literature, or folk songs, or anything else of this kind. And I don't believe anybody understands or like 'em either,
only they're scared to say so.

The thing that started me on this subject was that I saw a lot of "inspirations" portrayed in the form of oil paintings with which we have been favored lately. It's supposed to be the "very latest" thing,
and I'm ready to admit that it is. It's the only thing I don't doubt get there in time, as far as I'm concerned. I agree and am supposed to be an artist. I agree with you heartily, friend: I'm not cause they're sonnets or pictures

of religious or papers, they all "have a message." Only—the message never gets over!

Say, Old World, ain't it SILLY!
After all, life's such a simple thing!
A little play, a little love, some work,
and you're dead. You know that, don't think it would need any complicated,
artistic or literary technique
to deliver a message to a lot of common folks. And it doesn't. The biggest others made a hasty exit, supporting their wounded comrades. "What a cowardly bunch," said Lillian, as she watched them retreat. "I wish I could get at their bluff having failed they had lost no time in getting away from the vicinity of her home."

"WHAT?" cried the young bookworm, who had been under the spell of an obsession of mine which she thought of Lillian's silence pistol as they brought me seized me again. "The premonition crept over me, and I was sure that I should have my weapon and her readiness to use it when her work endangered would have her in trouble."

"You thought of the sight of Lillian's sombre face as it it was of suffering about the fact that it was not conducive to pleasant conversation. I was suddenly become vulnerable she looked up at Katherine and me."

Oakland Mothers Told of Work in Americanization

Pointing out to Oakland mothers that there were just three channels leading to Americanization work in the future, Mrs. J. George Short, president of the Americanization committee of the Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs, in an interesting discourse on the work through the medium of the school, gave many good hints for future work at the last meeting of the year.

"The first channel," declared Mrs. Short, "is through the foreign-born men and women in their homes; secondly, through the children in the schools; and, thirdly, through the buildings as community centers."

"Do not put your social side too high," warned Mrs. Short. "Keep your ideals to conform with those of the little mother. Mothers are the children and the university do not need your help so much as the little waterfront mother."

In her report Mrs. Short reported that the Day Nursery fund had received such splendid support that donations are no longer needed for the Prescott Day Nursery. It was suggested that the extra funds be sent to the Tompkins School to support the milk depot there, or for sewing lunches at the Central and Luzzar schools.

OFFICIAL LIST
FROM THE BOOK
Mrs. W. H. Judson of Oakland County, secretary of Second District of Mothers' Clubs, requests the presidents of all organizations of the Oakland Federation to have the list of officials in her hands by June 25 ready for the State year book.

HILL AND VALLEY CLUB MEETING
The monthly business meeting of the Hill and Valley Club of Hayward is to be held June 20 at the home of Mrs. John Allen Park, when Mrs. L. M. Tarrar, president of the club, will preside. As it is a directors' meeting, members of committees will please call up their chairman or procure a substitute if unable to serve.

McChesney School teachers have become paying members of the McChesney School Mothers' Club and Parent-Teachers Association instead of holding honorary membership. This increased greatly the membership fund.

"Y" GIRLS GO TO ASHOMAR

A large group of girls will leave Friday to enjoy a summer camp at Ashomar, the summer camp of the Y. W. C. A. on the Monterey coast. Among those going will be the Misses Edith Hanford, Evelyn Weeks, Emily Benjamin, Elsie Fox, Betty Chappell, Muriel Herold, Margaret Dandendorf, Margaret Martin, Evelyn Holcomb, Helen Dadel, Anne Zeitner, Elizabeth McComb, Teddy Van Horn. They will be chaperoned by Miss Hazel Crook, secretary of the girls work department, and Miss Freda Bayley, leader of the Tech Club.

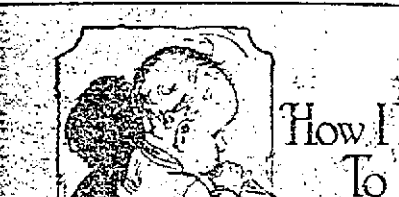

Captain Henry H. Mills of the Spruce Products Division of the Air Service is back from Oregon and Washington, where he was stationed during the war, and is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Melvyn Mills, acting general secretary of the local Y. W. C. A. at Berkeley.

Rotary Club Will Entertain Mothers

The mothers of Rotarians are to be guests at the luncheon of Oakland Rotary Club in the Hotel Oakland Thursday. The program for the luncheon is in charge of Group 9, of which Jim Hartwood is chairman, and will mark the first group luncheon of the new series. The numbers will comprise song and oratory.

L. Brown. Her condition is reported today as approximately unchanged.

How I Found The Safe Way To Give My Baby Milk

I AM the happiest woman alive. My baby is on the road to health.

Only a mother can know what that means.

Our doctor told me that the safest way to give him milk was to give him Nestle's Milk Food which is made out of pure milk modified with just the right amount of sugar and cereal.

He explained to me that making the milk into a fluffy powder breaks up those hard-to-digest curds so that when you add water and boil just a minute, you have the nearest thing in the world to mother's milk—clean,

Nestle's is pure milk in powder form that is already modified and has the right amount of sugar and cereal. Always pure and safe, always uniform, and free from the danger of home mixing. Nestle's has stood the test of three generations and has today the largest sale of any baby food in the world.

LABOR NOTES

Boilermakers' Union, No. 222, will vote at its meeting next Friday night on the question of a flat increase of 20 cents an hour over the present pay, the schedule to go into effect July 21 if endorsed by the members. The union has changed its meeting night from Wednesday to Friday.

The International Federation of Driftmen and Engineers, No. 11, will hold a smoker and get-together meeting at Native Sons Hall, 420 Mason street, San Francisco, next Thursday evening. Employees of driftdom and engineers have been invited. There are to be several speeches.

It is probable, according to labor leaders, that construction work on the new labor temple at 1728 Broadway, which was to have been started July 1, will not be under way before August 1.

Assurance that the Western Union Telegraph Company will fulfill the terms of a contract entered into July 1, 1918, with the Association of Western Union Employees was given yesterday by National President Hayes of Chicago in an address received by J. B. Hastings, president of the San Francisco local. This contract provides that any wage increase which was given the employees should date from August 1, 1918. The association submitted its scale to Postmaster General Burleson, who awarded a 5 and 10 per cent increase to take effect January 1, 1919. Not satisfied with this decision, the association appealed to President Coolidge for enforcement of the contract. Hastings says that the retroactive award will affect 98 per cent of the employees of the various departments in San Francisco.

Committees of five members each are to be appointed by the Alameda County Central Labor Council, and the Building Trades' Council to take up with the city council the matter of alleged unlicensed attacks by Police Corporal Mackey upon members of labor organizations.

Strike benefits for the telephone operators have been voted by the Central Labor Council and the Building Trades' Council.

Says Husband Bought Ring for Other Woman
Mrs. Cecelia Farrar of Berkeley won a decree of divorce from Joseph P. Farrar, salesman for J. Menist, San Francisco, in the court of Superior Judge Everett J. Brown yesterday afternoon. She told the judge that her husband had bought her for another woman, Miss Grace Morgan of San Francisco, whom, according to letters attached by the plaintiff, he promised to marry.

It was testified that he bought the other woman an engagement ring and that the installment collector gave her the ring away by going to the other woman to collect.

The wife contended the other woman, she said, who admitted the relation but claimed she did not know Farrar was married. Even after the situation was explained, Mrs. Farrar said, the other woman did not want to give him up.

Farrar was required to pay $50 a month for the maintenance of his wife and children. He appeared in court without an attorney and gave no testimony in his own behalf.

Sacred Heart Feast Will Be Observed
The Feast of the Sacred Heart will be observed by Catholic churches in Oakland on Friday, St. Mary's Church, Eighth and Mission streets, is planning the principal celebration. As a preparation it will begin tomorrow a Triduum of devotion and prayer. Masses will be held every morning at 7 and 9 and each evening at 7 and 9. A grand devotional meditation and benediction will follow the 9 o'clock service. Friday there will be exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. Holy hour devotions will be held in the evening.

Samoan Native Here to Study Nursing
Miss Grace Tene, of Pago Pago, Samoa, daughter of a wealthy native chieftain, arrived today at the Mayo Island hospital to learn the ways of American nurses. She now carries that knowledge back to the South Pacific. Her expenses are being paid by the American government as a reward for her services in the navy hospitals at Pago Pago.

Miss Tene explained that the natives of Samoa were suffering from a disease which she had learned to cure. She provided them with medical supplies instead of depending on the natives from the United States.

Piedmont Church Is Scene of Pretty Wedding

A surprise to Eastbay friends is announcement of the wedding of Miss (Gwendoline) Gratton Rice, youngest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Jesse J. Rice, of Piedmont, and Harry Simpson, of Seattle, an impromptu ceremony performed on Thursday morning in the latered-nuptial church in Piedmont. The guests included many relatives and a few close friends.

The service was read by the bride's father. The wedding costume was a stunning design in white tulle with which was a white veil. A shower bouquet of Cecil Haverer roses completed the effect.

The church was artistic in its decoration of pink and white roses, and the same color scheme was worked out in the decorations of the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. George Preston Wintermute, of Berkeley, where the wedding breakfast and reception followed the ceremony.

The bride, an accomplished musician, who is a member of the younger social set of the bay cities, met Mr. Wintermute while he was visiting relatives in the bay cities, following his return from overseas service.

The couple are now residing at the state 65 motor prior to their return to Seattle.

The bridegroom is stationed in naval headquarters in the northern city. Wintermute is the son of the late Dr. James S. Wintermute and Mrs. Florence L. Wintermute, pioneers of Tacoma and Seattle. He is a grandson of the Peter Preston Wintermute and Freeman of Virginia. His cousins are Miss Jane and Mrs. Macfarlane Wintermute, George Preston Wintermute, Jr., Miss Jeanne Wintermute, Franklin McLane Jr. and Nancy Lane of Washington, D. C., and Lieutenant Preston Rice and the latter's sister, Miss Nan Reavis of Seattle.

Among the relatives and friends present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rice, Mrs. Florence L. Wintermute, Lieutenant-Commander and Mrs. Dale Hodapp, Mrs. George Preston Wintermute and son, Miss Maud Marie Rice, Miss Jeanne Wintermute, Miss Marie Kennerly, Mrs. W. E. Stinson, and Mrs. Lynn Rich, Master John Dale Hodapp and others.

GUESTS AT F. C. HAYENS HOME
A distinguished visitor to the bay cities who is being entertained by Mrs. Frank C. Hayens at her home in Piedmont is Her Highness, the Duchess of Devonshire, who was the guest of honor at the Hayens home Sunday afternoon at tea. Sharing the honors of the occasion were her two sisters. Later in the afternoon a number of the guests motored to the home of Frank Elliot, who gave a brilliant dinner in honor of the visitor from Bombay. Her Highness wore an Oriental robe of wondrous coloring in tones of lavender and blue. Among the dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hayens, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Hayens, Mr. and Mrs. Landers Redman, Dr. and Mrs. Francis Musser and several others.

WEDDING TAKES PLACE IN NEW YORK
From New York news has reached local friends of the marriage of Miss Emily Packhurst and Lieutenant Robert Quill Whitton, of the regular army. Lieutenant Whitton and his bride are now at Fort Jay, Governor's Island, where the former is stationed. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Genevieve Voell Carlsburg, who was for some time residing in San Francisco.

A bride tea was given by Miss Elvira Tierman at her home in Alameda Sunday afternoon. Among the guests were Miss Alice Packhurst and among those whom the hostess invited for the afternoon were Miss Elizabeth Allen, Miss Marian Murphy, Miss Elizabeth Hogan, Miss Elizabeth Hogan, Miss Gertrude Kelly, Miss Anita Purcell, Miss Marian Hawkins, Miss Eva Kelle, Miss Adelaide Keller, Miss Adeline Kelle, Miss Barker, Miss Marian Murphy, Miss Helen Thymn, Mrs. Edgar Shaw and Mrs. John Claire Seagrave.

One of the delightful week-end parties was that given by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pendleton at their country place in the vicinity of Los Gatos. Those who motored down to spend the week-end with the Pendletons were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pendleton and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Storer.

WILL SPEND FOURTH ON HIGH SIERRAS
The Fourth of July holidays are to be passed by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Honsell, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Murrell and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pendleton at the Kendall Morgan summer home in the high Sierras, which has been taken for the month by the Honsells.

Tomorrow afternoon at her home on Vernon Heights Mrs. Victor H. Murrell will be hostess to a dozen of her closest friends. The party will be passed in a most informal manner with an hour or two of bridge after luncheon.

Christian Brothers in 8-Day Retreat
An eight-day retreat of the Christian Brothers of Oakland, Sacramento, Santa Cruz, Berkeley and other Pacific coast points where the order exists, was begun today at St. Joseph's Academy, Berkeley. Prayers and conferences will mark the gatherings. The members are entirely teachers. The session marks the end of the spring term. The order was founded in France during the reign of Louis XIV.

St. Bernard's Dance and Feature Program Will Help Sewell Fund

One of the important social events of the season in Fruitvale is to take place next Saturday evening, June 28, when members of St. Bernard's Church and its societies give their social dance. Preparations for the event have been for some time in progress and not only in its appointments but in the size of the crowd attending it is expected to set a new record for this part of the county.

The dance is to be held at Carpenters' Hall, which is to be specially decorated for the occasion. A committee to handle this feature of the dance has been named and is to do its work Friday and Saturday.

Special attention has been given to the music with the purpose of securing the best accompaniment for the dancing available. The proceeds of the dance go toward the special fund of St. Bernard's Church. While this fund draws on different sources during the year the dance is expected to make one of the largest additions to it.

A program in addition to the dancing is being arranged and entertainment for all guests, including those not participating in the dancing, will be provided. Miss Josephine Kosel, Miss Mildred A. Healy and Miss Canille Stokes have the program features in charge.

FATHER BARRY OF ST. PATRICK'S DIES

Father Maurice Barry, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, West Oakland, for the last six years, died late yesterday at St. Mary's hospital, San Francisco, from heart trouble, after an illness of several months. The funeral will be held Thursday morning from his own church. Archbishop Edward J. Hanna of San Francisco will conduct a solemn requiem mass. Rev. P. J. Keane of St. Francis Church, Oakland, will deliver the funeral sermon.

Father Barry was 47 years old. He had been a resident of California since 1917. Born in Limerick, County Kerry, Ireland, he remained on his native heath until ordained on his graduation from St. Patrick's College in Carlow, Ireland. He came at once to California. For six years he was assistant pastor at St. Patrick's Church, San Francisco, and then went to St. John's Church, Haysburg, where he remained eight years. In 1917 he came to St. Patrick's Church in Oakland.

He is survived by a brother, James J. Barry, of San Francisco, and three sisters, Sister Daniel, O. S. B., Sister Mary, Mrs. J. Guerin and Miss Hannah Barry of Ireland.

Would Retain Fog Bell on Long Wharf

An appeal to the government to maintain the lighthouse and fog bell on Long Wharf as an aid to navigation is being made by the South Coast Pacific ferry company. The company is protesting the plan to construct a sounding board to take the place of the bell. They declare it useless in that location. Chief Engineer Labouch is in charge of the construction work for the Southern Pacific.

PEACE IS NEAR.

Germany will sign the peace treaty. The signatures of the delegates selected to perform this momentous act will be affixed this week, according to Paris expectations.
 Thus the war is about to end formally. Owing to the peculiar circumstances of the situation,
 mostly having their bases in German treachery
 and untrustworthiness, the document which has been drafted at Versailles is the final peace agreement. There has been no preliminary treaty, as is often customary, covering a period in which
 final terms may be agreed upon.

The conditions of the treaty have in most important respects been given in advance. In their total effect they provide the reduction of Germany from a first class to a fourth class
 world power.

Germany has lost her colonies and all other foreign territorial possessions and her borders;
 her continental frontiers have been "corrected";
 a favorite term of the Pan-Germans during the first three years of the war—by the separation of Alsace-Lorraine and Poland from German rule.

Germany must make reparation to the full extent of her ability for the losses she inflicted upon the world; her officials guilty of violations of the rules of war and the laws of nations must be brought to trial. This includes the former Kaiser. Economic and financial conditions are imposed that will in time make every German citizen realize the enormity of the crimes committed in his name.

The military victory of the Allied armies seems to have been preserved as far as is possible.
 It is a victorious peace the Allies have made Germany accept; submission is acknowledgment of overwhelming defeat.

An improved era is about to be ushered in.
 The Allied peoples will now be able quickly to withdraw from the larger part of the war tasks
 and war work and turn to reconstruction and regeneration. There will be a relaxation of that discipline and hard concentration that is always necessary under a war regime; gradually the people of all belligerent countries will recover
 their privileges and liberty of initiative and private action under the law. These are happy prospects.

But it would be a mistake to greet tomorrow
 as the dawn of the millennium. Germany is still the enemy of four-fifths of the world. She must still be watched. Provision must be maintained against fresh repudiations of contracts, new treacheries and outrages. The government of Germany continues to be untrustworthy and does not invite confidence and respect. The new premier,
 Herr Bauer, declares Germany signs the treaty
 with an inner consciousness opposed to it—signs
 with reservation. Here Noske of the cabinet urges preparation for a war of revenge; the government permits, and in all probability authorizes, destruction of warships it undertakes by the treaty to surrender to the Allied governments.

The Ebert government has tried to capitalize
 Bolshevism, deliberately tried to exploit this form
 of anarchy; it has lied about internal conditions
 and about the needs of Germany for outside assistance; it has cultivated and is still cultivating the revenge idea; it has applied with an affectionate tenacity the old imperialistic ideas about diplomacy and dealings with other nations. The Ebert government, like its predecessors, has all the characteristics of the blonde beast, loving falsehood, hypocrisy and crime.

Wisely have the Allies provided for the military control of the Rhine provinces until the treaty conditions are complied with. This and other precautions are necessary. They must be maintained indefinitely. Instead of being forced to unconditional surrender Germany was mere-fully granted an armistice, and she is still unconvinced.

With these few observations of caution—not

of pessimism—the day of peace has arrived and
 the greatest war has been officially brought to a close with victory for right and law.

RADIO TELEPHONE.

One of the interesting developments of the war
 was the practical utilization of the wireless telephone, an achievement that must be credited to an American contribution to military science and invention, and one which was causing the enemy
 much apprehension when the armistice was declared.

Experiments to combine radio telephone for ground and ship use, which had been previously demonstrated, but not developed to a practical stage, with the airplane wireless telegraph, were started in May, 1917. The object was to produce an airplane radio telephone in practical form in the shortest possible time, which would give a voice to the commander of the air fleet. It is a tribute to the energy and skill with which the experiments were conducted that six weeks later
 the airplane telephone was a fact.

The War Department, which has become more liberal in giving out information since the cessation of hostilities, has included in a recent bulletin some extremely interesting details concerning the use of the radio telephone. In October, 1917, telephonic communication was carried on
 between airplanes in flight up to twenty-five miles
 apart and from airplanes to the ground up to a distance of forty-five miles apart. The result of this test was to disclose the possibilities of maneuvering airplanes under direct voice command, which made the tactical control of airplanes in flight greater than had ever been dreamed of. How the idea was realized is one of the most striking chapters in the war record.

Paraphrasing liberally from the official bulletin, the development of voice command flying proper was definitely begun at Gerstner Field, in May 1918. An officer familiar with military tactics, aviation and airplane radio was sent to that field for the definite purpose of placing in the air a fleet drilled and maneuvered by the voice of its commander. Tentative drill regulations were worked out step by step progressively through the school of the unit (15 airplanes), school of the section (16 airplanes), school of the squadron (13 sections) and tactical employment of the squadron.
 On June 1st an aerial review was given the director of military aeronautics of an air fleet consisting of two squadrons of 18 airplanes each, each
 with its commander, the whole commanded by a superior also in flight. This review was followed by a close order drill by a section of six airplanes
 which in turn was followed by a tactical problem
 among the clouds.

Throughout the review and the drill and problems which followed, command was exercised by the voice of the commander flying with the fleet.
 The development of voice command flying, and
 the training of aviators therein was continued at this field until it was destroyed by storm on August 6th. In September following, voice commanded flying was instituted at several other fields—particularly at Carlstrom Field.

By using the airplane radio telephone in instructing aviators in aerial gunnery it was found possible to reach the same degree of efficiency
 with a saving of one-third of the time otherwise required. By its use in the other phases of the training pursuit pilots and training in formation flying, twice as much training could be given. By exercising control over pilots in the air, accidents
 were practically eliminated.

These are a few of the results obtained by the use of the airplane radio telephone in the training of air service personnel and it seems we have merely made a beginning in this phase of aeronautics. At the signing of the armistice, development and training in voice command flying was well under way at the pursuit schools in this country. It was being enlarged as rapidly as possible with a view to having pilots leaving for France during the winter well trained in voice commanded flying and the tactics pertaining thereto. Numerous demonstrations were held during November and December and in the same period a fleet of 204 airplanes was maneuvered
 in the air at San Diego by voice command. In the practical application of the airplane radio telephone to airplanes, over 6000 flights have been made with this apparatus in this country. In the last 2000 flights there have been 71 cases of airplane trouble and 25 cases of radio trouble.

Here is one of the contributions of war to human knowledge. It is an example of how necessity acts as a spur to effort and achievement. The extent to which the radio telephone may be utilized in the peaceful activities of the world is at present largely a matter of speculation. But that the possibilities are large cannot be doubted.

A fleet of large freight ships is to be operated out of Puget Sound ports to Europe by way of the Panama canal, in accordance with the announced plans of the United States Shipping Board. This is a commendable undertaking on the part of the shipping board. Now if we could have a few ships to meet the demands of commerce and travel between this port and Hawaii
 and the Philippines the Pacific Coast might begin
 to hope for better times.

The soviet regime of Hungary has come to the conclusion that the attempt to eliminate capital
 from the country is bringing Hungary to the brink of ruin. In this respect the Bolsheviks of Budapest are far ahead of their fellow conspirators of Petrograd and Moscow.

NOTES and COMMENT

A soldier testifying before a committee of Congress said of the proposed federal land bill project for soldiers: "It looks mighty good."
 What he meant was "It sounds
 mighty good." He has not yet seen it.

New deposits of tin have been discovered in the Lukulu district of the Congo, South Africa. This does not give, however, any cause for hope that the price of canned foodstuffs will be reduced.

The Kansas City Star thinks Moreno is a queer name for a town
 located in California. From its own disclosure of municipal corruption in Kansas City the "Star" does not send a very effective light on its home town, so how can it be expected to judge the modesty of cities
 in other areas as California?

The psychologist says yawns and
 "munching" are warnings that you are loaded with food for prison. It is a short sentence with a psychologist that does not produce a yawn
 therefore, be on your guard.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

In Santa Clara valley orchards
 this week of wages is reported as having been modest. Forty cents
 an hour for work in orchards during the season for handling the apricot crop, ranging from ten to the pound, 12 cents per box, eleven to the pound, 11 cents per box, twelve
 to the pound, 14 cents per box—
 says Register.

The Central Valley Long Staple Cotton Association last week sold between 200 and 300 bales of Pima cotton in the last price secured in the valley the past year. The sale
 was made at Boston, Arkansas slightly over 12 cents per lb. to the buyer. Negotiations are under way for the sale of several other lots of the Pima and growers are naturally greatly elated at the opening of the eastern market to the valley long staple after the months of delay in which no sales could be made—San Bernardino Index.

The Cypress-American is sorry to announce that the limited telephone exchange which was provided by Manager F. A. Edwards of the local business community, has been closed this evening. The reason for this step is that the public has not cooperated
 with the management as requested in the Cypress-American last evening. Manager Edwards informs us that fully 90 per cent of the calls were purely social and that it is impossible to maintain any service at all under such conditions.
 If the subscribers cooperated and service for business purposes would have been continued until such a time as the students return to their posts. The only connections that will be made for the present are for doctors, fire and police departments.

Stockton's representatives will and in the United States Shipping Board
 an invaluable aid in furthering the project to open the San Joaquin river for the navigation of the full waterway for that body of water. The development of inland waterways and holds that supports far inland are
 the natural sequence of waterway developments. The first and most important work in the development
 of our overseas shipping is the linking of water and rail transportation
 and the construction of terminals.

 grees lower in a matter of hours
 yesterday afternoon with the porch removed, and rain was in place, then in front of Reynolds

 up. Another conclusive argument in favor of porch removal. It results the argument often put forth
 that the old wooden porches and displaced cloth awnings drop the sidewalk level. Why delay any longer remove them now.

What promised to be a battle
 royal today between Mrs. Betty Watson, waitress at the Blue Bird cafe,
 and "Duke" Wagner, proprietor of the Holville bakery, resulted in cessation of hostilities due to the mis-
 tery disappearance of "Duke".
 The encounter was the result of a feud that began when the young lady poured the contents of a glass
 of water down the neck of the bakery man. He has been waiting for his revenge and today
 he got it, by means of a couple of buckets full—Holtville Tribune.

ANIMAL HOSPITALS.
 To the Editor of The Tribune:
 I was very much interested in
 Mrs. George Armstrong's letter of protest in tonight's TRIBUNE (June 19) against moving the animal hospitals outside of city limits, or I believe 350 feet from church or residence. It seems there is a certain class studying community how they can work hardships on the poor animals; one ordinance after another or one bill after another at Sacramento keeps lovers of animals busy. We surely have a right on all the time, especially against "man's best friend," the dog, and all the law and ordinance directed at it.
 I am all of us lovers of animals
 made a stand against all this and see that the animals get a chance
 of their lives with the rest of us.

Scientific revision in Missouri.
 So old guys were taught to believe that feathers were nonconductors of electricity, but since last Friday night we have placed that theory among the archives of our boyhood fancies. For on that night lightning struck the henhouse of our neighbor, Frank Smith, and killed several of Mrs. Smith's nice hens, scolding the feathers from their nearly clean. So if you sleep
 on a feather bed during an electric storm don't be too secure, for the feathers may be stepped from under you.—Milan (Mo.) Standard.

THE POT OF GOLD.

ALASKANS MAKING GOOD.

What the Alaska natives are doing and are willing to do as proof positive of their fitness to live under the Stars and Stripes is impressed on all who come in contact with the natives and their numerous activities
 along lines of advanced citizenship
 and patriotism.

By way of a minor illustration
 that shows which way the wind blows with them. The natives of Juneau, through the press, advocated the killing of dogs that there might be more food for human consumption.
 They advised their native
 friends to protect the deer from their dogs that might fall over during last winter's deep snows, when many starved and all were weakened for lack of food.

Down at Kake the natives have
 only about one-third to one-quarter
 the number of dogs that they had last year. One who went through the village last fall and again this spring remarked on the fact that there were almost no dogs in town.
 "Yes," said a representative citizen, "the natives became convinced that from a sanitary standpoint and an economical standpoint they were keeping entirely too many pets. As a result of this conviction they began reducing on dogs and improving on health and food supply."

"We have no room for dogs in this part of the country, for dogs
 all the traveling is done by water,
 except a few that are trained to hunt bear. We intend to reduce our wolfish stock still further and keep and breed only the very best bear dogs," said another citizen of Kake.

Another point that impresses even
 a casual observer is that the natives
 all take local newspapers and read carefully—often very slowly—the events that are taking place locally and throughout the world. If a native is not a regular subscriber to a newspaper you may be sure it is because he cannot read one word of English or any other printed language. Even parents who cannot read will subscribe for a paper for their ten and twelve year old children, who have possibly had the advantage of two or three years in school.—Alaska Dispatch.

EXPERT TESTIMONY.
 Heard in court during the cross-
 examination of a witness:
 Q—State what does it make the coconut plantation poor in fruit
 production?
 A—Anything which is not favorable to coconut trees.
 Q—What winds are favorable and
 what are unfavorable to coconut
 plantations?
 A—The wind which does not give any harm to the coconut trees is favorable, and the winds which give harm to the bearing of fruits
 and growing whereof is unfavorable.—Guam News Letter.

BOYS JOBS FOR BOYS.
 Governor Coulter's vetoes are full of good strategy. The bill increasing the salaries of judges
 from $750 to $750 a year was raised, one expects, as a piece of camouflage
 to cover the more important bill which increased the salary of the legislator from $100 to $1500. The governor does not touch on the cause of the matter, but he gives adequate reasons for disapproving
 the measure. As he says, the pay is properly a boy's job, and the present compensation considering
 the length of session, is adequate.

The Jingles in the Headlines

By Harve Westgate

The Huns will sign the treaty, this coming Thursday morn, but every Hun has got a grinch, and wears a face forlorn; for still they keep a-growling, and swear they always will, because Link Sam got out his gun and licked old Kaiser Bill.

I dropped a jitney in the slot, but noone said hello; I waited for Miss Central, but Miss Central's awful slow; I longed to get my jitney, but that jitney never came, and so I'm five cents loser in the telephonic game.

The Turks are still unruly, and still keep up the fight, and forty thousand men in arms have put the Greeks to flight; the rumor reaches Paris, where wise men juggle peace, and now it's up to them, by heck, to guard the folks in Greece.

RELATIVES ON STAND IN DIETZ CASE

SPOKANE, Wash., June 24.—(Continued from page 1.) Dietz, former football coach and motion picture actor, is the son of Mrs. Leanna Howard Lewis, divorced wife of William Wallace Dietz, was the testimony of relatives of the elder Dietz in United States District Court here.

William H. Dietz is on trial on two counts, charging him with false registration for the draft and false statements in his questionnaire. He claimed exemption from military service as being a non-citizen Indian, and the government contends he has no Indian blood in his veins, but is the son of white parents and was born in the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dietz, uncle and aunt of the defendant, testified that they saw a child born to Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace Dietz, August 17, 1884, in Rice Lake, Wis., and that William H. Dietz is that same son.

"Two days after the child was born I happened into Rice and saw the baby, which had such unusually black hair that I remarked about it when I went home," Henry Dietz, brother of William Wallace Dietz, testified.

Neither Henry nor his wife ever heard a suggestion that the child was the son of any other than Mrs. Leanna Howard Lewis, they declared. The defense, according to its opening statement today, expects to prove that the defendant is the son of William Wallace Dietz and an Indian woman.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 24.—C. Kuchner, former sheriff of Barron county, Wis., and S. E. Washington, deputy clerk of the same county, testified that they knew both branches of the Dietz and Ginder families and that there was no Indian blood in any of them. The first indication they had of Indian blood in William H. Dietz's veins, they said, was when they learned he was attending the Carlisle Indian school.

Taking of testimony in the trial commenced after only a short time had been devoted to the selection of a jury. The government charges, according to its opening statement, that William H. Dietz, adopting the name "Lone Star" or "One Star," which was borne by an Indian who attended Carlisle several years before he died, represented to Sally Eagle House, One Star's sister, that he was her brother, and as such drew government money and attended Carlisle.

Mutinious Objectors Taken to Alcatraz

Moved from Leavenworth penitentiary because of trouble that arose there, thirty-two conscientious objectors are at Alcatraz Island today to get their first dose of "a change of atmosphere that may be beneficial all around," as government officials expressed it.

These men are said to have been the unruly ones that headed the recent outbreak at Leavenworth. They arrived at Alcatraz yesterday, handcuffed and shackled. Major Smith headed a detail of nine soldiers acting as guards.

SONG SPEEDING THROUGH COUNTRY

Quite a pretty song is now the vogue in New York. It is a very plain, home-like affair in which the modern kiddie finds his ideal in a beautiful girl. The idea seems to take with the fair sex, for they eagerly sing their little ditty for copies of the music. Here is a portion of the chorus:

DEAR HEART
Chorus.
Dear heart, are you true to me, my heart yearns for you—ly, thee, my soul knows no
sun-shine, Oh, I love you are mine, Faithful I will wait for you, my

Luxury Tax Repeal is House Plan Other Means of Revenue Sought

WASHINGTON, June 21.—An effort will be made soon by Republican leaders in the House to repeal the luxury tax passed in the war revenue law passed by Congress last winter.

The first repealing bill, proposed some weeks ago by a Republican member of the House, and named committee, reported out the tax imposed by Section 2809 of the revenue law, which was entitled "luxury tax." It was attacked immediately by members who were receiving complaints from their constituents because of the tax. The tax, which is levied on the sale of automobiles, boats, and many other things and articles in general use.

When the demand for extending the repealing bill grew so strong that it threatened to pass, in which the government expected to derive a revenue of $100,000,000.

Better Hats for Men

By ZELDA FISHER Artist and Writer.

The Hat as a Symbol

I suppose it need not be explained that a hat is worn by a man to keep his head warm and to protect it from the sun. It is a symbol of his position in life. It is a symbol of his power. It is a symbol of his authority. It is a symbol of his respectability. It is a symbol of his success. It is a symbol of his achievement. It is a symbol of his greatness. It is a symbol of his glory. ## MERCHANTS TO WELCOME ARMY FLYER

When Lieutenant James S. Krull, army aviator, flies down to Oakland from Mother Field, Sacramento, tomorrow, to talk to the Manufacturers' Bureau of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, he will receive a combined land and air reception.

Two airplanes are scheduled to fly up the country to meet him and escort him to his landing place, one flown by Lieutenant George Gray and the other by J. B. Struble, the millionaire amateur aviator.

WILL LAND AT ALBANY.

At Albany field, where Lieutenant Krull is to land at 11 o'clock in the morning, there will be assembled a score of automobiles carrying the reception committee of the manufacturers. The committee is headed by O. H. Fischer, who developed the "auton" engine in secret, two years before the Liberty engine was perfected. The other members of the committee are:

Edward H. Barber, H. C. Capwell, F. M. Goldstick, J. H. Hansen, Samuel C. Irving, Joseph H. Kline, R. H. Marchant, William Harold Oliver, Monte P. J. George Casmus, J. H. Roubalough, George E. Schen, J. N. Burroughs, Joseph Chrysothomo Jr., N. P. Danaher, Max Horwinski, R. L. Kennedy, H. A. Benford, C. C. Newkirk, James H. Doughty, W. W. Phillips, E. W. Morse, Ralph Stacy, Chas. Shaeffer, James Traverser, A. Youngblum, A. Wadsworth.

WILL ESCORT AVIATOR.

Lieutenant Krull will be escorted by the committee, in automobiles, to the Hotel Oakland, where the luncheon will be held. At the head of the procession will ride a bugler, who will sound his horn at every street crossing.

The lieutenant will talk to the manufacturers on "Touring Yosemite by Airplane," describing his adventures when he flew over the national park recently and made a landing in the valley.

It is expected that every seat at the luncheon tables will be taken, as the manufacturers are planning to bring their friends and the luncheon is open to all members of the Chamber of Commerce and their guests. Chairman Fischer of the reception committee will preside.

Head all the luxury taxes and to turn later to other forms of taxation to raise the necessary revenue for the government.

CHICK WRIGHT IS WINNER OVER BRUNNER

The billiard game at Wilkitt's Billiard Palace last night resulted in a victory for "Chick" Wright, former champion of America, but only after one of the hardest battles ever played in a long time. The score of 200 to 180 only speaks in part of the difficulty of the game. Wright played consistently, letting into and out of difficulties. Brunner, who in the earlier innings could not get going, the speed of the table later especially so. In such an exacting game, Wright's skill in the final innings was the deciding factor. ### Dempsey Is a Cinch to Win Says Leo Flynn

Well Known Handler of Boxers Says Champion Is All Through.

JACK DEMPSEY

By ED W. SMITH. TOLEDO, O., June 21.—Leo P. Flynn, the barn-brother king and carpet bagger of fiction, has been on the battlefield for two days and has had his eyes wide open. When it comes to lamping Dempsey, Leo Flynn is as good as a man as there is in the world to-day. From morning until night Leo Flynn has followed both contender and champion over their daily routine and after watching the movements of Willard and the champion looked like a set-up for the contender. Leo's deductions are there: Willard is an old man both in action and spirit. The fat which the public cannot see, but which the eye of an experienced boxer is the fat on the inside of his jaw anatomy which develops from soft living and age, and will not come off. He looks good, feels good and is a good fighter, but he is not a champion. The Heavers are in Vernon for a series with the Essex Tigers and they will have to show the goods before a deal is consummated.

HOT RACE FOR HONORS "Wahoo Sam" Is a Wonder

JOHNSON IS CLIMBING

By EDDIE MURPHY

The batting lamps of Sam Crawford, the Los Angeles outfielder, might have appeared dim to the Detroit Americans, but after two years with the Angels he is able to show the young fellows in the Coast League how to hit. The former Tiger is now tied with Bill Hunter, the Salt Lake outfielder, for the league's batting honors. Sam Crawford has improved his average by four points last week, while Hunter remained stationary. They are hitting .360 for the season, but Sam is able to laugh at Hunter for one reason: Crawford needs but one more hit to make him the first batter to whittle out 100 sacrifices.

Then the Salt Lake pit chaser and batter can come back with a few sacrifices himself. Crawford has played in twelve less games than Crawford, scored six more runs, hit sixteen doubles against Crawford's fifteen, nine triples against eight, five homers against three and secured four more hits. But just the same that batting average of Crawford's is enough to make a little too hasty in letting Crawford get away from him. He may make a head for the major league, but he would drive out money a timely hit. Hank Miller of the Detroit has a forest at his home.

Manager Killefer of the Angels is showing his spikes to the other fellows by trying to make their way around to the state of the season. ## Most leaks are here

In the bathroom—that's where many dollars' worth of water is wasted because of imperfect plumbing.

If an overlarge water bill leads you to believe there is a leak somewhere—look first in the bathroom.

See that all faucets work easily—that they turn off tight—that the washers are in good condition.

Examine the shower fixtures for leaks—often a leak here will go unnoticed for days.

Make sure that the toilet plumbing works properly; that the valves and ball cocks are in good condition.

Keep the bathroom plumbing in first class condition—it saves the cost of wasted water.

We want you to watch for leaks—to save water—for your own good. We lose nothing when you waste water—in fact, the more you waste the greater our income. But we want you to be more than just a customer—we want you to be a satisfied customer. For that reason we are interested in helping you save water and keep your water bills low.

CONGRESSMAN
OPENS ATTACK
ON DENSMORE

J. B. Densmore, whose rather troubled career as a government official around San Francisco bay, was terminated when he fled after his famous dictagraph exposure had caused him to be summoned before the grand jury of San Francisco county, is in more trouble. This time it is in Washington, where Congress is investigating the United States Employment Service, the accusations have been made against Densmore.

"Guilty of inefficiency in the conduct of that bureau" is the accusation against Densmore by Representative Burton of Texas, who, while advising, said today in committee that he is prepared to substantiate his charges. Made on the floor of the House, it was the first time that a federal employment service that Densmore conducted his dictagraph investigation into conditions in San Francisco, although he had been there at other times in other government capacities.

IN ANGEL ISLAND PROBLE. It was as a solicitor for the department of labor that Densmore first caused agitation in local federal circles. He started an investigation into conditions on Angel Island, and several indictments were returned. Some of these indictments were against persons who had aided Densmore, and four were pardoned after Densmore had interposed. They are Robert A. Ferguson, Pressley A. MacFarland, Henry Akers and Robert W. Hendricks, who had been at the time of the investigation, and Densmore had promised them immunity.

Densmore also was responsible for Dr. John A. Gardner leaving the immigration service and the suspension of inspectors William M. Cassaway and William T. Heilmann. Thirteen others were removed or given an opportunity to resign. Densmore's investigations had to do with a so-called ring for smuggling Chinese into this country.

From time to time there came rumors that Densmore and other federal officials were not in the best of relationship. Officially, there were complaints. Officially, that Densmore was "covering too much ground" in the way of investigating, and that in certain cases his activities had upset plans of those in other branches of the federal criminal service.

REFUSED TO TESTIFY. However, there was nothing that culminated in a real break until after the dictagraph exposure. Then attempts were made to get Densmore before the San Francisco county grand jury, his testimony being essential to prove the authenticity of the record. Two men from government service who had assisted him in installing the various tell-tale devices also were sought as witnesses, but he refused to have them before the grand jury, refused to appear before that body in person and when there was danger of arrest on a bench warrant he vanished.

Because of this refusal to give credence to the dictagraph record, there never was any effort to prosecute those accused by Densmore of all manner of crimes. Since then, from time to time, there have come complaints about the manner in which the federal employment service has been conducted, and now there is on an investigation that promises to center around the dictagraph exposure.

MOONEY CASE MENTIONED. In connection with the investigation now being conducted, the address from Washington said that full investigation of the department of labor's connections with the Mooney case is being made.

Makes Appeal Through 'Want Ad'

MARGARET McALLISTER.

MAN WHO LURED
2 GIRLS ESCAPES

Fleeing from the scene of a murder in a San Francisco dance hall, the man whom police believe to be a white slave and who lured away the two pretty Oakland telephone strikers, Misses Josephine and Rose Allensworth, aged 15 and 17 respectively, made good his escape while the police took into custody the girls late last night.

The mother, Mrs. Ollie Allensworth, who was prostrated with grief by the daughters' disappearance, was overjoyed when they were returned to her.

The girls were last seen Saturday night, entering an automobile occupied by a man and woman. The search conducted by the police of all bay cities was rewarded by the detection of the sisters in the San Francisco dancing place.

Their escort left before the police could interview him.

Case and manarism. It was also asked by Elmont, but the committee refused to act.

The purpose of the dictagraph exposure was to prove that District Attorney Charles Fickert of San Francisco had acknowledged Mooney's conviction by illegal methods.

"Charges have been made by substantial persons that the department of labor is working hand in hand with the people who are trying to get anarchists out of jail," Elmont declared.

The committee is sitting in consideration of a bill to establish a federal employment service and held that it had no power to investigate the department of labor.

Representative Elmont said he would present witnesses to show that two-thirds of the appropriations of employment service have been "wasted and misapplied."

'Personal' Tells Story
of Quarrel Wrecking
Marital Bark

"If you will come back now everything will be all right. What has happened will be forgotten. Your wife and baby want you. But this is the last time I shall make this appeal. If you do not come now, we will be gone where you can never find us."

While chubby, rosy-cheeked Margaret, aged 15 months, stood on the floor of her grandmother's room at 1011 Thirty-third avenue, Margaret's mother, Mrs. Maryann McAllister, a pretty young woman in the early twenties, told today of her search for her husband, Donald McAllister, age 28. After looking for him in vain since his disappearance May 4, the wife inserted the following advertisement in The Tribune:

"Don, Papa permanently placed in different eastern city. Please come to your baby and little girl before two weeks, or we will be where you will never know where to find us. Cannot live and be happy without you. Can you without me? Maryann."

Although this appeal might suggest suicide, Mrs. McAllister denies that she had such an intention, but says that she and her baby will go away to join her father if he does not return at once. She said McAllister is a skilled mechanic, son of well-to-do persons in Spokane.

The day after he left his wife to join me, "that Don left," said his young wife. "He just walked out and never came back. We had had some words, I was not sure of the baby since. I want him to know that for the baby's sake, and for mine as well, he can come back now and everything will be all right."

He is really a fellow with many fine qualities, even if he did leave his baby. He does not drink or swear. We met through mutual work with a Christian Endeavor society in Spokane. I put in the back door and the casing was somewhat warped. Thieves gained entrance to the place through this door a month ago. A police investigation shows today's attempt corresponded exactly with circumstances surrounding the successful burglarizing of the place a month ago. Furs valued at $500 were stolen at that time.

Police were first apprised of the burglar attempt by the loud clanging of an alarm. Police Inspector William H. Gallagher, Wood and Drew, assisted by Sergeant Gus Merthens of the Berkeley force, answered the call.

BANDIT GANG
'BRAINS' POSES
AS 'CUSTOMER'

A dapper hold-up man is today sought by the police, following the robbery of the Triangle Saloon, 60th and Adeline streets, one of the boldest hold-ups in this city in months.

Fifteen or more customers at the bar were lined up. The bandit passed his hat among them, collecting several hundred dollars, besides a number of watches and some jewelry. The bandit was a supposed "victim" in the bold robbery. Police suspect he was the brains in the hold-up job, and numerous other bold robberies of Oakland saloons.

This man entered the place a few minutes before the hold-up. He ordered a glass of beer and lingered until the hold-up man entered.

The man's face was well covered with a black mask. He pointed a 45 Colt's revolver at the small assemblage and the customers were forced to stand with their backs to the bar.

After taking all the valuables of the patrons, the masked bandit picked out the well-dressed man who had just come in. He ordered him to clean out the cash register. The man did as he was ordered and turned over $85 to the bandit. It was the entire contents of the till, including a large amount of pennies.

DROPS FROM SIGHT. The man who emptied the cash till mysteriously dropped out of sight, while the victims were recovering from their plight. C. D. Chaney, of 835 61st st., a bartender reported to the police that this man was not the slightest unnerved and he was positive the man was implicated in the robbery.

The robbery was staged just before closing time and was conducted in an experienced manner. The hold-up man left in a few minutes. Nothing was said by either party.

The police are strongly inclined to the belief that the suave person who cleaned out the money drawer planned and helped execute the bold crime. He is the same man, they say, who has been reported in numerous hold-ups of a similar nature.

BURGULARY FAILS. Burglars early today failed in a dangerous attempt to break into the Hudson Bay Fur Co., 530 14th street, where thousands of dollars' worth of expensive furs are held.

A police investigation shows today's attempt corresponded exactly with circumstances surrounding the successful burglarizing of the place a month ago. Furs valued at $500 were stolen at that time.

Police were first apprised of the burglar attempt by the loud clanging of an alarm. Police Inspector William H. Gallagher, Wood and Drew, assisted by Sergeant Gus Merthens of the Berkeley force, answered the call.

The small, but clear mark of a "hand" was seen on the back door and the casing was somewhat warped. Thieves gained entrance to the place through this door a month ago. 250 War Vessels
Will Be Included
in Pacific Fleet

Two hundred and fifty fighting vessels will comprise the new fleet for Pacific Coast waters, according to information reaching Mare Island navy yard today. It is understood that the greater part of the fleet will consist of destroyers constructed on this coast.

A number of dreadnaughts, cruisers and auxiliary craft are also included in the list, and according to present plans, at least half of the armada will make their home yard at Mare Island, which means that the present force of mechanics will be increased to at least that the rumor of explosions

MODIFY TEACHER
MARRIAGE RULES

Oakland's much protested "married teacher rule," under which teachers who marry give up their places in the Oakland schools, has been modified by edict of the Board of Education.

It's just as illegal as before to employ a teacher who's married, except that the bars are let down so far as teachers of atypical classes are concerned. These teachers and substitute teachers may hearken to the voice of the Little Blind God. All others must shun the flickering light of love if they want to stay on the school payroll.

The Board of Education by its ruling viroces substitute teachers and atypical teachers in a separate class where marriage, while in the teaching ranks, or employment of married teachers is permitted. Scarcely of these types of teachers is the reason for the ruling, according to the board.

Regular teachers are subject to the same rule as before, by which marriage terminates school employment.

Committee to Draft
Railway Legislation

WASHINGTON, June 24.—First definite steps looking to the drafting of general railroad legislation were taken today by the Commerce Committee of the business affairs of the schools," he said, "I left a field with greater opportunity of remuneration. During the past year, as Mr. Hunter knows, I have had several big offers to my financial interest, but I felt that my work here was still incomplete, and also it is true that a man with red blood would in any case stick to his work in the face of unworthy and insincere opposition, especially from a source where only cooperation should be expected.

"But if my plans mature, I will leave this service the first of the year, certainly before the end of the next fiscal year." Pratt informed the board that he had two private offers from large corporations, one of which he would accept.

Superintendent Fred M. Hunter voiced the regret of the board at Pratt's proposed departure, stating that he felt that Pratt could probably not be replaced in the school service.

The board will reorganize July 1 with Fred Campbell and J. E. Chandler sitting as new members.

$200,757 IS BUDGET RAISE
FOR SCHOOLS

That the Oakland schools will require more than $200,757 increase over last year's appropriations is declared by the board of education, following the completion of the new school budget, which is to be placed before the supervisors. The total amount desired this year is $2,357,562 as against $2,156,805 last year.

Various increases for attendance, for vocational work, for 42 new portable schools which are necessary, according to the attendance department to house the influx of new students before the school building program can be effective, are among the items that have created the request for the additional money. Besides these increases the school teachers are asking, independently of the school budget, for a 10 cent tax to provide for salary raises.

BOYLE WITHDRAWS PROTEST. Last night's meeting of the school board saw the re-election of Dan W. Pratt as secretary and business manager, after a fight by Director Harry L. Boyle to prevent his selection, and announcement by the business manager, after he had been re-elected, that he would leave next year to take up private work.

Boyle had asked a reconsideration of Pratt's election last week, intimating that his election at this time might not be legal. A report from the district attorney was filed last night to the effect that it was legal, and Boyle withdrew his reconsideration.

WILL RETIRE NEXT YEAR. Thanking the board for his re-election, after four years of service, Pratt announced that he would serve only another year at most. "When I undertook the reorganization of the business affairs of the schools," he said, "I left a field with greater opportunity of remuneration. During the past year, as Mr. Hunter knows, I have had several big offers to my financial interest, but I felt that my work here was still incomplete, and also it is true that a man with red blood would in any case stick to his work in the face of unworthy and insincere opposition, especially from a source where only cooperation should be expected.

Mooney Declares
July 4 Terrorism
Against His Wish

Bomb explosions and a reign of terror, announced to be ready for July 4, as part of an effort to obtain the pardon of or a new trial for Thomas J. Mooney, were not planned with his sanction, he says. From his cell in San Quentin penitentiary, where he is serving a life sentence for the preparedness day explosions in San Francisco, Mooney today sent to the public the following statement:

"Every sane working man knows a bomb explosion July 4 would damage my cause. So I insist now that if such explosions occur they will not be the work of my friends. Such explosions would only benefit the forces that put me in jail."

He declares his opinion that the rumor of explosions set for July 4 is propaganda by "big business."

EARLE WILLIAMS
SUIT IS OPENED

LOS ANGELES, June 24.—Armed with a thick packet of love notes which she claims were written to her by Earle Rafael Williams, motion picture actor, pretty Roma Raymond appeared in Judge Meyers court here today for the opening of the trial of her $150,000 heart claim suit against the film star.

A brilliant array of attorneys, representing Miss Raymond and Williams, prepared to select a jury a few minutes after court convened.

A few of the love notes carried by Miss Raymond into the courtroom were addressed "My darling," "My dear Snookums" and "Dearest Lummy." The letters, it is claimed, date back to 1917, when Miss Raymond alleges Williams promised to marry her.

NOTED HEALTH
EXPERT HEADS
SCHOOL WORK

Dr. Richard A. Bolt, noted physician, baby clinic, organizer and public health worker, is to take charge of the health work of the Oakland public schools, as the first step toward his work with the Alameda County Health Center, through action of the Board of Education. Dr. Bolt, who has been appointed to handle the work in Oakland and has also been appointed by Berkeley, comes with the recommendation of the University of California, which is supervising Health Center work, and he will have the active backing of that body.

The physician, according to Miss Annie Florence Brown, who has just returned from New York, Cleveland and other large cities in the East, where she studied health work, is one of the recognized experts in America in public health. A graduate of the new public health course in the Rockefeller Institute, he has also degrees from Harvard and the University of Michigan, has practiced privately, has been affiliated with hospitals in Boston, New York and Cleveland; has directed the indomitable college in China; was associated with the work with Dr. William Palmer Lucas; practiced with the Cleveland Baby Dispensary and has directed public health work in China as a representative of the United States Government. He has recently been discharged from army service.

Dr. Bolt was in charge of public health work in Cleveland, which, according to Miss Brown, has the best developed public health center in the United States. He will start his work here as director of health for the public schools next term.

Shoots Man Because
Pet Dog Was Abused

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., June 24.—G. D. Mitchell, a veterinary surgeon, was shot through the stomach last night by Mrs. T. J. Nichols, wife of a former mayor of Klamath Falls, who declared Mitchell had mistreated her pet dog. At the hospital where he was taken it was said Mitchell's chances for recovery were slight.
